Dear Sir

Thomas Peck an employee of the mint owes me $900 I went to him twice on Pay days on one occasion I asked him for fifty cents to get medicine for my Baby and he refused me I am out of work all winter I had not enough of money to pay for the Doctors prescription & him owing me this money I thought he would be gentleman enough to give me that much I am a hard working man earns only $150 a day I hope you will be so kind as do something for me

Mr. Rose I am very sorry to trouble you but necessity causes me to do it I know he won't pay it unless you take in hands I am advised by friends to let you know about it and I hope to hear from you favorably This would be a great favor & a charity if you would do it

If it aint to much trouble Mr. Rose send me a postal and I will be for ever obliged to you Richard Jennings
